

Stakeholder Involvement and Transparency in G-TwYST

Armin Spök

Stakeholder Workshop on
2-Year Animal Feeding Studies with GM Maize
Vienna, 16 – 17 Dec 2014

Objectives of Stakeholder Involvement

- Inform and fine-tune the research process
- Enhance relevance of project results from a broader societal perspective
- Ensure transparency of research
  - What
  - Why
  - How and
  - By whom

Frequently observed type of stakeholder involvement

G-TwYST approach: upstream engagement

G-TwYST approach: upstream engagement

Consultation Phases and Topics

Characteristics of Stakeholder Involvement and Transparency

- Workshop
- Written comments – team responses
- Journal discussion forum

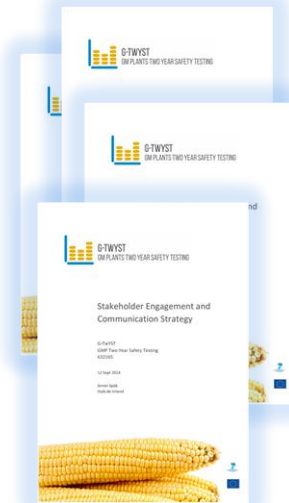

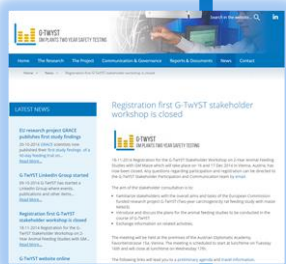

How stakeholder inputs are shaping the research process and the outcomes

Dialogue Traceability

Transparency Accuracy

- Drafts, stakeholder comments, discussions, team responses, results, raw data
- Plans, process, results
- Researchers involved

Stakeholder review of draft workshop reports

Stakeholder engagement and communication strategy

- Principles and procedures for stakeholder engagement, communication and dissemination.
- Key principles
  - transparency
  - accountability
  - scientific robustness
- Available at <http://www.g-twyst.eu/>

Planning Stage Consultation

Thanks for your Attention!

For more information see www.g-twyst.eu
Contact: G-TwYST-consultation@aau.at, info@g-twyst.eu